THE IMPACT OF THE GOSPEL

Paul and Silas in Prison

¹⁶ One day as we were going down to the place of prayer, we met a slave girl who had a spirit that enabled her to tell the future. She earned a lot of money for her masters by telling fortunes. ¹⁷ She followed Paul and the rest of us, shouting, “These men are servants of the Most High God, and they have come to tell you how to be saved.” ¹⁸ This went on day after day until Paul got so exasperated that he turned and said to the demon within her, “I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her.” And instantly it left her. ¹⁹ Her masters’ hopes of wealth were now shattered, so they grabbed Paul and Silas and dragged them before the authorities at the marketplace. ²⁰ “The whole city is in an uproar because of these Jews!” they shouted to the city officials. ²¹ “They are teaching customs that are illegal for us Romans to practice.” ²² A mob quickly formed against Paul and Silas, and the city officials ordered them stripped and beaten with wooden rods. ²³ They were severely beaten, and then they were thrown into prison. The jailer was ordered to make sure they didn’t escape. ²⁴ So the jailer put them into the inner dungeon and clamped their feet in the stocks. Acts 16:16-24 NLT

- The Gospel had radically changed Paul and impacted his life.
- Paul was now proclaiming God’s good news that had set him free.

¹⁷ She followed Paul and the rest of us, shouting, “These men are servants of the Most High God, and they have come to tell you how to be saved.”

- Even the demons know that The Gospel has power the power to save.

THE POWER OF THE GOSPEL IS THE POWER OF GOD!

²⁵ Around midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the other prisoners were listening. ²⁶ Suddenly, there was a massive earthquake, and the prison was shaken to its foundations. All the doors immediately flew open, and the chains of every prisoner fell off! ²⁷ The jailer woke up to see the prison doors wide open. He assumed the prisoners had escaped, so he drew his sword to kill himself. ²⁸ But Paul shouted to him, “Stop! Don’t kill yourself! We are all here!” ²⁹ The jailer called for lights and ran to the dungeon and fell down trembling before Paul and Silas. ³⁰ Then he brought them out and asked, “Sirs, what must I do to be saved?” ³¹ They replied, “Believe in the Lord Jesus and you will be saved, along with everyone in your household.” ³² And they shared the word of the Lord with him and with all who lived in his household. ³³ Even at that hour of the night, the jailer cared for them and washed their wounds. Then he and everyone in his household were immediately baptized. ³⁴ He brought them into his house and set a meal before them, and he and his entire household rejoiced because they all believed in God. Acts 16:25-34 NLT

- Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, worship is a choice.
- Those around us watch and listen to how we respond and react.
- Every prisoner was impacted by this outpouring of God’s power.
- God’s presence in our life should impact those around us.

²⁹ The jailer called for lights and ran to the dungeon and fell down trembling before Paul and Silas. ³⁰ Then he brought them out and asked, “Sirs, what must I do to be saved?”

- Believe in the Lord Jesus and you will be saved.

³² And they shared the word of the Lord with him and with all who lived in his household.

- Faith alone!
- We must love people enough to share God’s Word.

BAPTISM IS PUBLICLY DECLARING OUR FAITH IN JESUS AND THE POWER OF THE GOSPEL.

^{33b} Then he and everyone in his household were immediately baptized.

Why would you wait on baptism?

- Fear?
- Uncertainty?
- Better understanding?

Why get baptized immediately?

- It’s obedience.
- It’s a step of faith.
- It’s sharing what you have received.

They all rejoiced and celebrated their salvation and the power of the Gospel.
